Re: 2015 HOA Budget and Homeowners Dues

Oops! The coupon booklets (or bank notifications) for payment of your 2015 homeowner dues are arriving in your mail - one month early and without the accompanying explanation letter. We're sorry.

We had given our bank preliminary printing information. They were supposed to schedule and set up the print job and then hold it awaiting final verification of our numbers before printing. The bank forgot the hold part.

You will be getting an official HOA letter within the next few days explaining next year's budget and the 2015 assessments from the Homeowners association. The HOA board meeting addressing the 2015 budget is on November 18, 2014 at 2:00 pm. We expect the final dues will be $1200 annually ($300 quarterly) as shown in the booklets. Please keep these booklets as they will be necessary for next year's payments. We apologize for the surprise delivery.

Please share this information with your neighbors. We do not have everyone's email address.
